NSS ( National Service Scheme)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) had its birth on September 24, 1969, during the Gandhi centenary year. Aimed at developing student's personality through community service, NNS, is a voluntary organization of young people in Colleges, Universities and at +2 level working for a campus-community linkage. The NSS has good relations with different government agencies and non-government organizations in implementing its programmes for building up community assets, helping the underprivileged people through education and social services. The NSS is useful not only for the development of the students' personality, but it also helps promote the unity and integrity of the nation by bringing together young people from diverse geographical and socio-cultural backgrounds.

The cardinal principle of the NSS programme is that it is organized by the the student themselves, and both student and teacher their combined participation in community service, gat a sense of involvement in the takes of nation building

Services to mankind in society is a concept from time immemorial. People cooperate and help each other in one or the other way in their day-to-day life. Many social activists preached and practiced the theory of social for the welfare of the society . Great personalities and various organizations have been striving hard with a sense of duty and responsibility to reach the needy and common man and sort out social issues, problems, etc.
